Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .Illiteracy in Dale County, that had pictures of people as old and older than she, who were going to school and learning to read and write. This made her more interested than before. Every time I read or heard about any old person going to school I told her about it. This interested her very much. ., My Pupil. The work was begun in earnest about the first of June 1916, when I gave her a copy book. She began to use the book as soon as I gave it to her. She would work with her writing whenever she had time and when I went to her home she would show me her work and I would help her with anything she did not understand. Mrs. Worshim was at that time confined to the house and her writing was a pleasant pastime; for that reason...
