O. , 2003. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)55481427 Subject: Advertising, Outdoor -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 As an industry comprised predominantly of family owned smaller businesses catering to highway travelers and tourists, our members constantly seek cost effective ways to reach that difficult moving target audience. A great deal of the industry has been built on the broad shoulders of large and small billboards along the highways with attractive graphics catching the attention of the traveler and ingenious copywriters using an absolute minimum of letters to craft enough of a message to capture the mind of the viewer whiz-zing by at 55 miles an hour or faster. Let me also emphasize that our comments today are endorsed by the National Travel, Tourism and Recreation Coalition for Surface Transportation. This coalition is comprised of national tourism and recreation organizations that support enactment of strong and adequately funded reauthorization legislation that reflects the interests and needs of the tourism and recreation industries. It is important to note that for small businesses that serve the traveler, the choice of advertising media to reach that market is limited, and the importance of billboard advertising is very significant. Unless the highway traveler has had the opportunity to re-search their food, fuel, accommodations and attraction options in a particular area, the typical print, radio and television media serving an area is of no value to the small business or to the traveler. While there are advertising options such as directories, brochure distribution in visitors centers, travel magazines and guides, Web sites and other various media,...
