Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Christian Educators in Council: Sixty Addresses by American Educators; With Historical Notes Man is confronted with two possibilities: he may become worse or better. Those looking on the sunset of life are apt to see the shadows of evil growing; but our day accepts the idea that man has not only gone forward with time and the course of events, here worse and there better, but that on the whole he has greater possibilities and is in better conditions. We agree with Whittier when he exclaims, Take heart! The waster builds again. A charmed life old Goodness hath; The tares may perish, but the grain Is not for death. God works in all things; all obey His first propulsion from the night; Wake thou and watch! the world is gray With morning light. The instinct of life in the animal is hardly more universal than the aspiration of man for improvement; individuals, families, societies, churches, nations, races, seek for its measure. Every new scheme for the amelioration of man s condition, every ism or ology...
