HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When asha bandele fell in love with a prisoner serving a twenty-to-life sentence and became pregnant with his daughter, she had reason to hope they would live together as a family. But soon after Nisa was born, asha s dreams were shattered. Her husband, Rashid, was denied parole and told he d be deported to his native Guyana once released. Suddenly a statistic--a black single mother in New York City--asha kept it together on the outside while falling apart on the inside. Despite having a great job at a high-profile magazine and a beautiful daughter whom she adored, asha began drinking and smoking and stumbled into a relationship that opened new wounds--descending into depression when her life should have been filled with love and joy. A lyrical, astonishingly honest memoir, Something Like Beautiful is not only asha s story but also the story of thousands of women who struggle daily with little help and much against them.
