NO GLASS ALLOWED

Words Dance Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Brewer s collection is filled with uncanny details that readers will wear like the accessories of womanhood. Fishing the Chattahoochee, sideways trees, pollen on a car, white dresses and breast milk, and so much more -- all parts of a deeply intellectual pondering of what is often painful and human regarding the other halves of mothers and daughters, husbands and wives, lovers and lost lovers, children and parents. - NICHOLAS BELARDES, author of Songs of the Glue Machines Tammy Foster Brewer is the type of poet who makes me wish I could write poetry instead of novels. From motherhood to love to work, Tammy s poems highlight the extraordinary in the ordinary and leave the reader wondering how he did not notice what was underneath all along. I first heard Tammy read The Problem is with Semantics months ago, and it s stayed with me ever since. Now that I ve read the entire collection, I only hope I can make room to keep every one of her poems in my heart and mind tomorrow and beyond. - NICOLE ROSS, author.
