The General Secretary-Treasurer could not then attend to the many wants of the organization, and so he had to engage two rooms for the General Office and hire a clerk as an assistant. As the years went by, it became necessary to move into an up-to-date office building and to secure four rooms for office purposes with additional help. During the last dozen years the organization grew at a rapid pace. It jumped from a membership of 40,000 to a membership close to a quarter of a million. This increase meant greater responsibilities and liabilities. It meant more work, a heavier daily mail, a larger office force, and a larger office. It meant that business must be transacted in a business manner in an up-to-date fashion. In order to cope with the growing and numerous demands and wants of our members, Local Unions and District Councils, it became necessary in the year 1902 to place the General President in the General Office to conduct organizing work, pass upon appeals, approve local by-laws, superintend trade-movements, and to generally supervise the entire interests of our organization. In the same year it was decided to separate. This was the beginning of the present membership card-filing system which has proven so valuable to us and which is of vast benefit to us all. Through this system we can check up the monthly reports as they are received from Local Unions...
